1. In preparation for changing the Communist newspaper Labor from a weekly to a daily, the Communist Party of Peru has organized a permanent committee known as the "Comite Pro-'Labor' Diario." The members are as follows:

Head:

Jose Reccio

Secretary of Organization:

M. Robles Alarcon

Assistants:

Isaac Loayza

Secretary of Propaganda:

Daniel Leiva

Assistants:

Julio Monje

Secretary of Economy:

Segundo Heredia E.

Assistants:

Luis Nieto

Roberto Herrera

Juan Matienzo

Rosa Hurwitz

F. Febres Lopez

Jose Galvez

This Committee will also include accredited delegates from various Communist entities. Alfredo Mathews and Omar Zilbert have been appointed as delegates representing the Political Commission of the Party.

2. The Committee is to organize an extensive fund-raising campaign of which 30 per cent of the proceeds will be given to the Campaign for Municipal Elections, and 70 per cent retained for the use of the newspaper. Its immediate purpose is to raise a fund of at least 80,000 soles, although it is hoped to achieve eventually a fund of 100,000 soles.
